Jacason was unam-mously elected by the Board of Visitors to fill the Chair of Natural and Experi-mental Philosophy and instructor in ar-tillery tactics, in March, 1851, and he entered upon his duties in September following. The professional career of Major Jackson was marked by great faithfulness, and by an unobtrusive, yet earnest spirit. With his mental endow ments, teaching was a new profession to him, and demanded, in the important department of instruction assigned to him an amount of labor which, from the state of his health, and especially from the weakness of his eyes, he ren-dered at great sacrifice. He was strict and even stern at times, but was polite and kind. He was respected and had the confidence of the cadets, and was fearless in the discharge of his duties. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that relence has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J.
